ORDER

This matter is before the court on the parties' Joint Motion to Continue Trial [89]. Counsel for the parties appeared by telephone conference on September 15, 2022, before the undersigned magistrate judge. The parties require additional time to finalize a plea agreement. The court finds good cause for the requested trial continuance under the circumstances. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Joint Motion to Continue Trial [89] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, now set for September 26, 2022, is continued to November 14, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and November 14, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would result in a miscarriage of justice or deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(i), (iv).

DATED: September 16, 2022.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
